

Higher Education

Part 1: What are your dreams?

Do you want to go to college? Where?

What career do you want?

What is your dream car?

What age do you want to retire?

What kinds of things do you want to do with your free time?

Higher education is an investment. What are advantages of a higher education?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

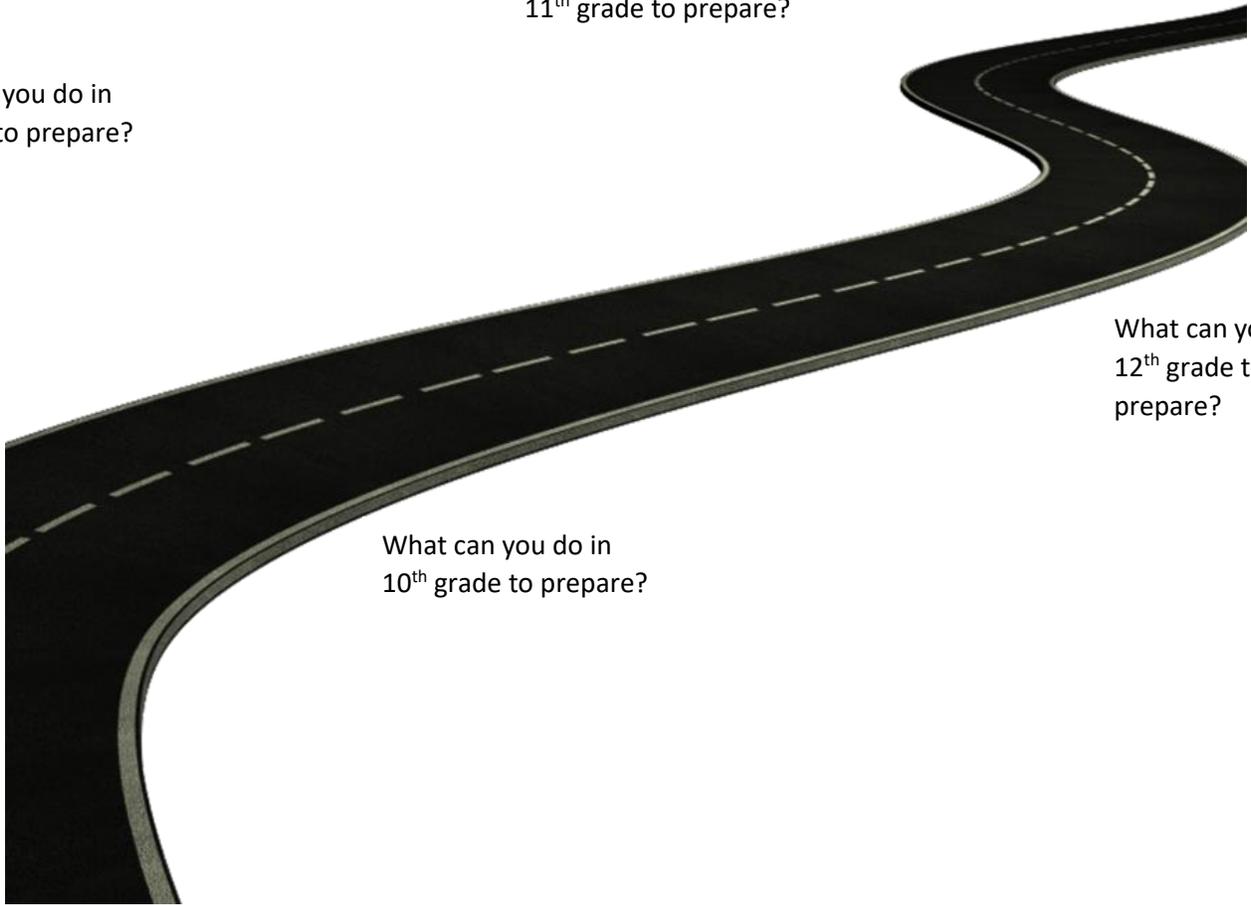

What are the three types of money for college? How will you pay for college/trade school/specialized training? (fill in the blanks with the types of money you could use for college)

Education ROI (Return on Investment) –How much can you earn with a college degree/professional certification?

Age 20	Age 35	Age 50	Age 65

Part 2: Path to Higher Education

What can you do in 9th grade to prepare?

What can you do in 11th grade to prepare?

What can you do in 12th grade to prepare?

What can you do in 10th grade to prepare?

Financing Higher Education – types of money

What are the types of “Free Money”

What are the types of “Earning Money”

What are the types of “Borrowed Money”

Part 3: Types of Federal Loans

Write the number in the blank to match the description, each will be used twice

- The first step in getting student loans is to complete the _____ form. 1. Subsidized
- This type of loan _____ requires you to pay the interest you accumulate during school? 2. Unsubsidized
- This type of loan _____ the government will to pay the interest you accumulate during school? 3. FAFSA
- Which loan is available to everyone? _____ (hint: you can chose more than one)
- Completing _____ form is FREE

Filling out the FAFSA Form:

1. If you don't have a paper copy of the FAFSA form, how else can you fill it out? _____

2. What's the earliest you can submit your FAFSA application? _____

3. Where can you find the deadlines for state aid? _____

4. You are filing your FAFSA form close to a deadline. How should you file? _____

5. If you need to view your tax return information, what tool can you use? _____

6. If you need help filling in the FAFSA form, where can you go for help? _____

7. After you send in your application for processing, what will you receive back? _____
